About Remake Learning Education Friday

WHERE:

Buhl Community Park and Nova Place (formerly Allegheny Center) on Pittsburgh's Historic Northside

WHAT:

An opportunity for students to get a FREE, up-close look at the creative, inspiring and innovative world of making through hands-on activities, demonstrations and workshops. As a leader in the Maker Movement, Maker faire Pittsburgh is dedicated to celebrating and inspiring Makers. This day offers an excellent opportunity to engage kids in the Maker Movement and have a hands-on experience in the world of making. Remake Learning Education Friday allows students and educators to visit unguided through the world of Making. Students who participate will:

- ◆ Meet, interact, and converse with individual Makers, who are sharing their unique passions
- ◆ Become exposed to the wide breadth of art, science, engineering, history, and interdisciplinary Subject areas that all involve making
- ◆ Experience live demonstrations
- ◆ Engage in hands-on workshops and activities, resulting in a project to take home
- ◆ Become exposed to, and feel welcomed and supported in, the Maker community
- ◆ Be inspired with at least one new idea to try at home or in school
- ◆ Feel excited to make every day a making day, and to return the next day!
- ◆ Will receive voucher for a free One Day Pass to the Faire October 15-16. One Accompanying Adult will receive a discount of $3 with student voucher (given on the day).
